

Rocky Mountain Psychology Association Convention 2023

Psi Beta Club

One-Time Funding Report

- 9 Psychology Club members attended the Rocky Mountain Psychology Association conference in Albuquerque, NM April 13-15th.
- One-time funding paid for:
 - Airline tickets
 - Conference registration
 - Vrbo lodging

Conference Summary

- Students engaged in a community service activity (cleaning up a local park)
- Presentations covered numerous topics in the field of psychology including memory, personality, social psychology, addiction, diversity & inclusivity
- Key-note speakers were notable professionals in the field of psychology
- Students attended sessions on being successful at the graduate level (i.e., getting letters of recommendation, avoiding burnout & academic resiliency, writing curriculum vitae, etc.)
- Students networked with other students from a number of different states
- Students attended poster presentations on various topics and were able to provide authors feedback on presentations

